

You must have discipline. You discipline those under your supervision to correct, to help, to improve – not to punish.

Describe a parent, coach or supervisor that disciplined you consistently and effectively without creating ill will over the long run.

How did they do it?

Give an example of a specific incident of effective discipline with yourself or one that you observed.
