

Part Three: The future may be when you wish you had done what you are not doing now.

Do you truly enjoy your job? Do you spend enough time with your family and friends? Is there room for improvement for you?

Are you doing a good job of saving money? What do you think about spending in line with how much you were making before your last two raises or at least operating that way in the future?

Are their important challenges you gave up on too soon? Can you go back and take another shot at them and try a different approach?
