

The more concerned we become over the things we can't control, the less we will do with the things we can control.

. What does this statement mean to you?

---

---

---

What is the importance of the idea the less we will do with the things we can control?

---

---

---

Who would you share this idea with and how would you advise that person to apply it?

---

---

---