

Consistency creates excellence.

What does this phrase mean to you?

Describe a person you know or have known who is/was consistent. What are/were they consistent about? How did this impact your relationship with this person?

Make a list of behaviors personally and professionally that you are consistent are consistent with. Make a list you would like to add. What's your plan?
