

Show great patience and do not expect too much too soon.

How would you balance being patient and getting results in a timely manner?

Describe a person you learned from or are learning from who is patient. What is the impact their patience has on you as a student?

Who in your life could you be more patient with?
