

The difference between a manager and a leader: A Leader inspires with his or her example.

What does this statement mean to you? How would you apply it?

Describe a person you learned from by their example. What is the impact their example had on you as a student?

Who in your life could you set a better example for?
