

"I do it because he or she does it" is not a good reason.

What does this statement mean to you?

---

---

---

How do let what other people do, say or write influence your thinking?

---

---

---

---

How could you influence a young person to think for them self; irrespective of influences from friends and all the information they receive on the internet and through social media?

---

---

---

---