

The Wolf and The Pack

How would you explain “the strength of the Pack is the Wolf” as it relates to building/having good team work?

How would you explain “the strength of the Wolf is the Pack” as it relates to building/having good team work?

How do you take advantage of the individual talents of team members and still build good team work where $1 + 1 =$ something more than 2?
