

Team Building

Describe a coach, supervisor or boss who defined the fundamentals and kept their proper execution a priority. What was the result?

Describe a group or team you have been on where everybody had brains and character. What was that like?

Have you ever been overloaded with too much information at once? What was the result?
