

One On One Time

Describe a situation you have been in where a person in position of authority was able to positively impact a group by consistently making time for face to face one on one discussions with members of his/her group.

Specifically how did they do this and what was the outcome?

Who in your professional or personal life do you need to make more one on one time for?
