

“How to Show You Care”

Describe a coach, teacher or boss that you have had or have that took/takes an interest in your challenges and aspirations beyond your professional relationship. Give a specific example.

Without using a name describe a coach, teacher or boss that you have had or have that is/was only interested in your performance on the job. Give a specific example.

What specifically are the differences, if any, in the results of these two approaches?
