

“The Right People”

What does the idea that you have to have The Right People to make a great team mean to you?

---

---

---

Describe the character traits the right kind of person would need to be a great team member. Give an example.

---

---

---

What character traits would be unacceptable for a person to have to be on your great team?

---

---

---

---