

Failure Isn't Forever

As a practical matter what does the expression "Failure Isn't Forever" mean to you? What are some practical examples?

How do you deal with "fear of failure"?

How can you help others overcome fear of failure? Give some specific examples.
