

“Your level of consideration is a measure of your education”

What does this idea mean to you? Give a specific example please.

Does this idea have any value? Why or why not?

How could you apply this idea to your everyday life? Please be specific.
