

Sometimes Rejection Is Just A Number

What do you think about the idea that "Sometimes Rejection Is Just A Number"?

Please provide from your own experience or Google an example of this idea being true.

How would you teach this idea to young people?
