

“You often find what you’re looking for.”

What does the idea : “You often find what you’re looking for.” mean to you?

Do you think there is any truth to the idea: “Whether you look for the good or look for the bad in a person, you’ll find it.” Why or why not?

Does the idea from Father Flanagan: “There are no bad boys. There is only bad environment, bad training, bad example, bad thinking.” Have any value or application. To what degree?
