

“The Worst Thing You Can Do for Those You Love is to Do the Things They Could and Should Do for Themselves.” – Abraham Lincoln (Mentor to Booker t. Washington and John Wooden)

What does: “The Worst Thing You Can Do for Those You Love is to Do the Things They Could and Should Do for Themselves.” mean to you?

“The Worst Thing You Can Do for Those You Love is to Do the Things They Could and Should Do for Themselves.” Give a specific example of this idea in action (good or bad) at work or on a team or group project.

“The Worst Thing You Can Do for Those You Love is to Do the Things They Could and Should Do for Themselves.” Give a specific example of this idea in action (good or bad) in a home environment from the perspective of a parent, significant other or child.
