

“We are all not created equally.”

What does: “The good Lord in his infinite wisdom did not create us all equally, thus we should never compare ourselves to others, but we should never cease in trying to improve as individuals.” Mean to you?

---

---

---

Give a practical example of how to apply this idea for yourself.

---

---

---

Give a practical example of how to apply this idea when coaching someone else.

---

---

---

---

---