

“Assign and accept shared responsibility for outcomes.”

What does: “Assign and accept shared responsibility for outcomes.” mean to you? Please give a practical example.

What does: “If you wish to be heard, listen. Always seek to find the best way rather than insisting on your own way.” — John Wooden mean to you? How does it fit in here?

What does: “We know true collaboration happened when the idea can no longer be traced to one person.” — Simon Sinek How do these three ideas work together? If you can give a practical example.
