

“Take action with a clear vision of long-term impact.”

What does: “In my opinion, being an effective leader – one who can build a winning organization – requires being an effective listener.” – John Wooden mean to you? Please give a practical example.

What does ““You must listen to others if you want others to listen to you.” – John Wooden mean to you? How does it fit in here?

How does; “A leader is interested in finding the best way rather than having his own way” How do all these ideas fit together in terms of a practical application?
