

Being great requires being great as an individual and great as a teammate.

What does: "Being great requires being great as an individual and great as a teammate "mean to you? Please give a practical example.

_____

_____

_____

What does "You cannot live a perfect day without doing something for someone without a thought of repayment." — John Wooden mean to you? How does it fit in here?

_____

_____

_____

How does: "Being great requires being great as an individual and great as a teammate. That requires consideration for others. apply? How do all these ideas fit together in terms of practical application?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____