

Keep a cheerful, optimistic disposition. Think positively rather than negatively. Sincere optimism builds confidence and courage.

What does this statement mean to you?

---

---

---

What are different ways a person can communicate optimism?

---

---

---

How important are body language and facial expressions in communicating optimism and building courage? Who could you share this with?

---

---

---