

“A Great Teacher Tells You Why.”

What does the statement: “A Great Teacher Tells You Why.” mean to you?

Is there always value in explaining why things are done a certain way? If so why? If there are exceptions give an example.

How do you balance the time to explain and the time allotted to get the job done? How do you deal with people who don't want to know why and just want you to tell them what to do?
