

“Don’t Just Wait For Instructions”

What does the idea “Don’t Just Wait For Instructions” mean to you?

How would you rate your team on this idea? “We are not afraid to fail. We are aware of the needed outcome, but we lock in on the process in the present and don’t get distracted by the “what if” of the future.” How could you improve performance in this area?

How would you rate your team on this idea? “We don’t sit back as employees and just wait for management to come up with process improvements. We come up with creative process improvement ideas and bring them to management on our own.” How could you improve performance in this area?
